Clerk's Report – 25 June 2020 Remote Meeting

Agenda Item 6 (a) – Playground Inspection Reports – Weekly inspection reports received since previous meeting to be presented and any matters arising to be discussed.

Agenda Item 6 (b) – Annual Playground Inspections – The annual RoSPA Play Safety Inspections have been received covering both Chinley and Buxworth Playgrounds and Chinley Skatepark/Cycle Facility. A summary report has been circulated with the Clerk's recommendations for action for consideration.

Agenda Item 6 (c) – Pest Control (Moles) – A quote has been received to carry out annual pest control of moles at Chinley Playing Fields and Buxworth Recreation Ground. Consideration will need to be given to whether we continue with this.

Agenda Item 6 (d) – Custodian of the Flag – This is usually considered at the Annual Meeting of the Parish Council. To approve the appointment of Cllr Hewitt as Custodian of the Flag and to consider any back-up assistance required. Additionally to discuss the council's existing policy in respect of flags and to consider whether any formal policy is required. There was some information related to flag flying in DALC's June newsletter.

Agenda Item 6 (e) – Allotment Rent – Both Chinley and Buxworth Allotment Associations currently pay a peppercorn rent of £1 to the parish council per annum. As per the Agreement with each Association this should be reviewed on an annual basis.

Agenda Item 6 (f) – Lower Lane Access Route to Chinley Park – An update on carrying out maintenance/repairs to the Railway Steps adjacent to Chinley Allotments will be given. In addition the reporting of the condition of the entrance gate before the railway bridge from a local resident will be discussed and action considered.

Agenda Item 6 (g) – Ride-on Mower – Quotes for the 100-hour service of the ride-on mower will be presented for consideration.
