PARISH COUNCILLOR VACANCIES

Can you make a difference in our community?

There are currently three vacancies for councillors on Chinley, Buxworth & Brownside Parish Council and applications are being invited from suitably qualified persons wishing to stand for co-option.

The Parish Council are particularly interested in hearing from people who:

- live in Buxworth and/or can represent the interests of residents living there
- have a keen interest in the management of our local open spaces and recreational facilities
- are able to carry out inspections and/or general maintenance tasks

If you do not meet these criteria, but are passionate about becoming a councillor and making a difference to our community, we still want to hear from you.

How to Apply

To be considered for co-option onto the Parish Council, please email or write to the Parish Clerk at the address above, to be received no later than 2pm on Tuesday 27 June 2023, describing briefly:

- why you are interested in becoming a parish councillor
- what skills, expertise and interests you have that you can bring to the role
- what you hope to achieve in the role

Co-option Process

The co-option will be considered at the next meeting of the Parish Council, to be held on Wednesday 28 June 2023 at 7:30pm in Chinley & Buxworth Community Centre, Lower Lane, Chinley. All candidates for co-option are invited to attend this meeting and will be given the opportunity to make a short address to the Parish Council to describe why they wish to be considered for this position. Please note, candidates may still be considered for co-option if they are unable to attend this meeting.

Further Information

For more detailed information on the co-option process and eligibility criteria for holding office as a councillor, or if you'd like to know more about the role and the work of the Parish Council, please do not hesitate to contact the Parish Clerk using the details above. We look forward to hearing from you.
